

RHYTHMING

Meaning: RHYTHMING (verb): the act of moving or producing sounds in a regular, repeated pattern or tempo.

1. The dancers moved gracefully, each step perfectly rhythmically to the music.
2. He spent hours rhythmically tapping his fingers on the table, lost in thought.
3. The drummer was rhythmically keeping time, setting the pace for the entire band.
4. As the waves crashed against the shore, they created a rhythm that felt almost musical.
5. In her poetry, she often played with rhythm, finding beauty in the way words flowed together.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rhythming>