

RIBAND

Meaning: Riband: a decorative ribbon, often used for embellishment or adornment.

1. The bride adorned her bouquet with a delicate riband that fluttered in the breeze.
2. In the art gallery, the colorful riband displayed a sense of elegance and movement.
3. To celebrate the occasion, he tied a bright riband around the gift box for a festive touch.
4. The gardener used a riband to mark the edges of the flower bed, creating a neat outline.
5. She wore a lovely dress with a riband at the waist, adding a charming detail to her outfit.
6. The bride wore a beautiful gown adorned with a delicate riband around the waist.
7. The award was presented in a decorative box tied with a shimmering riband.
8. As she wrapped the gift, she chose a vibrant riband to add a touch of elegance.
9. The artist skillfully painted a scene featuring a lush garden and a flowing riband in the wind.
10. In the ceremony, they used a riband to symbolize their bond and commitment to one another.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/riband>