

RIFLING

Meaning: Rifling refers to the act of searching through or examining something quickly and thoroughly, or the grooves inside a gun barrel that impart spin to a bullet for improved accuracy.

1. The detective found evidence of rifling in the barrel of the gun, suggesting it had been used in a crime.
2. Her fingers moved swiftly through the pages, rifling through the book in search of the perfect quote.
3. The artist's work was characterized by a unique rifling technique that added depth and texture to the canvas.
4. As he stood in the library, he felt a sense of nostalgia while rifling through his childhood books.
5. The sound of rifling papers filled the room as she prepared for her presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rifling>