

RIM-FIRE

Meaning: Rim-fire refers to a type of wildfire that burns along the outer edges of a landscape, often spreading rapidly and threatening nearby structures and vegetation.

1. The intense rim-fire raged across the dry landscape, consuming everything in its path.
2. Firefighters struggled to contain the rim-fire as it crept dangerously close to the residential area.
3. Experts warned that the rim-fire could lead to significant ecological damage if not controlled quickly.
4. The smoke from the rim-fire could be seen billowing into the sky for miles around.
5. Residents were evacuated as the rim-fire spread rapidly through the forest, threatening their homes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rim-fire>