

RIVAL

Meaning: RIVAL: A person or entity competing against another in the same field or endeavor, often characterized by a strong competitive relationship.

1. The two companies have been fierce rivals in the tech industry for over a decade.
2. In the world of sports, every champion has a worthy rival pushing them to improve.
3. Her rivalry with her older brother fueled her competitive spirit throughout their childhood.
4. The playwright created a character who serves as a rival to the protagonist, adding depth to the story.
5. Despite their rivalry, they often collaborated on projects that benefited both of their careers.
6. She has always considered her older brother her biggest rival in sports.
7. The two companies have been fierce rivals for market dominance over the past decade.
8. In the world of chess, each grandmaster is constantly looking for ways to outsmart their rivals.
9. Their rivalry began in college and has only intensified in the years since.
10. Despite being rivals on the field, they share a mutual respect for each other's skills.
11. She always pushed herself to outperform her rival in academic competitions.
12. Their rivalry on the soccer field has become legendary among local fans.
13. Despite being rivals, they maintained a mutual respect for each other's skills.
14. The novel explores the complexities of friendship between two long-time rivals.
15. As a talented athlete, she was always striving to outperform her rivals on the track.
16. Their rivalry intensified after the championship game ended in a controversial decision.
17. He viewed his neighbor as a rival, particularly when it came to their annual gardening competition.
18. In the world of politics, rivals often exchange sharp words to undermine each other's credibility.