

RIVALRY

Meaning: Rivalry refers to a competitive relationship or contest between two parties, often characterized by a longstanding and intense struggle for superiority or dominance.

1. The rivalry between the two soccer teams has fueled intense competition for decades.
2. Their longstanding rivalry was showcased in the championship match that captivated fans across the country.
3. Friendship turned to rivalry when they both vied for the same prestigious scholarship.
4. In the world of technology, the rivalry between the leading companies drives innovation and progress.
5. The fierce rivalry in the business sector often leads to groundbreaking strategies and market shifts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rivalry>