

RIVALSHIP

Meaning: RIVALSHIP: the state or condition of being rivals, characterized by intense competition or conflict between individuals or entities.

1. The rivalry between the two companies intensified as they fought for market dominance.
2. Their longstanding rivals engaged in a fierce competition that captivated the entire industry.
3. Despite their rivalry, the two athletes respected each other's skills and determination.
4. The novel explored the complexities of sibling rivalry and its impact on family dynamics.
5. In the world of sports, rivalry often fuels the passion and drive of the players involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rivalship>