

RIVERED

Meaning: RIVERED: characterized by the presence of numerous rivers or streams flowing through an area.

1. The landscape was rivered with sparkling streams that glistened in the sunlight.
2. As we hiked along the path, we noticed how the valley was beautifully rivered by winding waterways.
3. The ancient map revealed a terrain that was once heavily rivered, creating fertile grounds for agriculture.
4. After the heavy rains, the fields were rivered with tributaries, altering the scenery dramatically.
5. The artist captured the essence of the countryside, where the hills were gently rivered with meandering brooks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rivered>