

ROARER

Meaning: ROARER: A person or animal that produces a loud, powerful sound, often associated with strength or dominance.

1. The lion's roar echoed through the savannah, a powerful reminder of the majestic roarer that ruled the land.
2. In the heart of the concert, the lead singer became the ultimate roarer, captivating the crowd with her electrifying voice.
3. As the crowd cheered wildly, the winning athlete emerged as the roarer of the night, celebrating with unbridled enthusiasm.
4. Among the various species, the howler monkey is often referred to as the most formidable roarer of the rainforest.
5. The passionate debate turned the usually calm professor into a fierce roarer, passionately defending his views on climate change.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/roarer>