

ROBORATION

Meaning: Roboration refers to the process of strengthening or confirming the validity and reliability of findings or data through additional evidence or support.

1. Roboration of the research findings was essential to establish their credibility.
2. The committee's decision to proceed with the project was based on the thorough roboration of all preliminary data.
3. After extensive roboration, the hypothesis was accepted by the scientific community.
4. The roboration process involved multiple rounds of peer review and testing.
5. Her claims required further roboration before they could be taken seriously in the debate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/roboration>