

RODOMONT

Meaning: Rodomont refers to boastful or bragging behavior, often characterized by excessive pride or self-assertion.

1. The knight's rodomont was evident in his boastful claims of invincibility.
2. In conversation, he often resorted to rodomont, which made some listeners roll their eyes.
3. Her rodomont demeanor was entertaining at first, but soon grew tiresome.
4. The play featured a rodomont character who exaggerated his exploits for comedic effect.
5. Despite his rodomont nature, there was a certain charm that drew people to him.
6. The villain boasted like a true rodomont, believing his own exaggerated tales of bravery.
7. Despite his rodomont demeanor, everyone knew he was just masking his insecurities.
8. In literature, the rodomont often serves as a foil to the humble hero.
9. Her rodomont behavior at the party drew both admiration and eye-rolls from the guests.
10. The knight's rodomont claims of invincibility quickly fell apart in battle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rodomont>