

ROMEWARD

Meaning: Romeward: in the direction of Rome.

1. The travelers felt a sense of urgency as they moved Romeward, eager to witness the city's splendor once more.
2. As the sun began to set, the group turned Romeward, their hearts filled with anticipation for the evening's festivities.
3. With every step taken Romeward, the couple reminisced about their first visit to the ancient city.
4. The artist packed his brushes and canvases, determined to journey Romeward in search of inspiration.
5. They followed the winding road that led Romeward, enchanted by the beauty of the Italian countryside.
6. We set out on our journey Romeward, eager to explore the ancient city.
7. The travelers felt a sense of adventure as they headed Romeward through the picturesque countryside.
8. With each passing mile, their excitement grew as they drew closer to the Romeward destination.
9. The winding roads seemed to beckon them Romeward, filled with tales of history and culture.
10. As the sun began to set, they could see the silhouette of the hills Romeward in the fading light.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/romeward>