

ROOMER

Meaning: A roomer is a person who rents a room in someone else's home or property.

1. The landlord was pleased to find a responsible roomer who paid rent on time.
2. After a long search, she finally found a roomer to share her apartment and help with expenses.
3. He enjoyed the company of his roomer, who often cooked delicious meals for both of them.
4. The old house had several roomers, each with their own unique stories and backgrounds.
5. Finding the right roomer can make living together enjoyable and hassle-free.
6. The old house was filled with a variety of roomers, each with their own peculiar habits.
7. After years of living alone, she decided to take in a roomer to help with the rent.
8. His experience as a roomer in college taught him the importance of sharing space respectfully.
9. The landlord screened potential roomers carefully to ensure a harmonious living environment.
10. As a roomer, he quickly learned to navigate the dynamics of communal living.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/roomer>