

ROOMFUL

Meaning: A 'roomful' refers to a quantity of people or objects that can fill a room.

1. The comedian had the entire roomful of people laughing within minutes.
2. She stepped into the roomful of art and felt instantly inspired by the creativity around her.
3. Despite the roomful of critics, he presented his ideas with confidence and poise.
4. A roomful of children eagerly awaited the start of the magic show.
5. The lecture was so engaging that a roomful of students remained captivated until the very end.
6. The conference was attended by a roomful of eager participants ready to share their ideas.
7. As the speaker took the stage, a roomful of silence enveloped the audience in anticipation.
8. She decorated the roomful of guests with beautiful flowers and elegant table settings.
9. The comedian had the entire roomful in stitches with his clever jokes and witty observations.
10. After the announcement, a roomful of excitement erupted as everyone celebrated the good news.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/roomful>