

ROSE-PINK

Meaning: Rose-pink refers to a soft, light pink color reminiscent of the petals of a rose, often associated with warmth and delicacy.

1. The sunset painted the sky in a beautiful rose-pink hue, casting a warm glow over the landscape.
2. She wore a delicate rose-pink dress that complemented her fair complexion perfectly.
3. The artist chose a rose-pink palette for her latest painting, creating a dreamy atmosphere on the canvas.
4. In spring, the garden was filled with blooming flowers in shades of rose-pink, attracting butterflies and bees.
5. The walls of the nursery were painted a soft rose-pink, creating a soothing environment for the baby.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rose-pink>