

ROUP

Meaning: Roup (noun): A gathering or assembly of people, often for a specific purpose, such as fundraising or support, or a condition in sheep characterized by respiratory illness.

1. The sheep began to roup as the storm approached, seeking shelter in the barn.
2. He had a knack for organizing a roup whenever the community needed funds for a good cause.
3. During the annual fair, the children participated in a roup to raise money for their school.
4. The farmers held a roup to discuss the upcoming planting season and share their resources.
5. As the sun set, the old man reminisced about the lively roup held in the village square each summer.
6. The farmers gathered to discuss the best methods to increase their crop yield during the annual roup.
7. In the midst of the bustling market, a loud roup erupted as vendors haggled over prices.
8. She watched the roup unfold, fascinated by the intensity of the debate among the community leaders.
9. After the roup concluded, the committee members voted on the proposed changes to the policy.
10. The lively roup in the town square drew the attention of passersby who stopped to listen.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/roup>