

ROUSER

Meaning: ROUSER: A person or thing that energizes or excites a group, often through inspiring speech or performance.

1. The energetic speech from the coach served as a real rouser for the team before the big game.
2. Her passionate performance was a rouser that rallied the audience to their feet in applause.
3. As the music played, the crowd became a lively rouser, dancing and cheering with excitement.
4. The director hoped the new marketing campaign would act as a rouser to boost ticket sales.
5. His ability to tell captivating stories made him a natural rouser, drawing people in wherever he went.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rouser>