

ROW

Meaning: 'ROW' refers to either the act of propelling a boat using oars or a linear arrangement of objects or people placed side by side.

1. We decided to row across the lake to enjoy the beautiful scenery.
2. The children formed a neat row of chairs for story time in the classroom.
3. During the meeting, each department head took a turn to present their updates in a row.
4. She was so frustrated that she couldn't help but start a row with her neighbor about the noise.
5. The farmer planted the seeds in a straight row to ensure they would grow evenly.
6. The children sat in a neat row, eagerly awaiting their turn to speak.
7. After hours of work, they finally managed to row the boat across the serene lake.
8. The shelves were organized in a tidy row, making it easy to find every book.
9. To celebrate their victory, they formed a row and sang their team anthem together.
10. During the concert, the audience stood in a row, clapping rhythmically to the music.
11. She decided to row across the lake at sunrise, enjoying the tranquility of the early morning.
12. The children lined up in a neat row, eagerly awaiting their turn to enter the classroom.
13. During the meeting, they had a heated row over the proposed changes to the project.
14. The farmer planted the seeds in a straight row to ensure they received adequate sunlight.
15. He had to row hard to reach the shore before the storm hit.
16. The children formed a neat row as they lined up for lunch.
17. She decided to row across the lake to enjoy the peaceful scenery.
18. In the library, the books were organized in a row by their genres.
19. After a heated discussion, the teammates found themselves in a row over the strategy.
20. He could hear the distant sound of oars dipping into the water as they rowed past.
21. The children lined up in a neat row to enter the classroom.
22. She decided to row across the lake in her small canoe.

23. The store had a row of colorful dresses on display in the window.
24. He felt a wave of anger as he witnessed the row between his friends.
25. Each row of seats in the theater provided a perfect view of the stage.
26. The children lined up in a neat row for the school assembly.
27. We need to row the boat gently down the stream to enjoy the scenery.
28. She decided to plant the flowers in a colorful row along the fence.
29. The debate team had a row about the best strategies to win the competition.
30. As the storm approached, the row of trees swayed fiercely in the wind.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/row>*