

RUBBISH

Meaning: Rubbish refers to waste material or garbage, as well as something that is worthless or nonsensical.

1. The park was littered with rubbish after the festival ended.
2. I can't believe you think that idea is good; it's total rubbish!
3. She decided to throw away the old books that were just taking up space and collecting rubbish.
4. His explanation was full of rubbish, making it hard to take him seriously.
5. After the storm, the beach was covered in rubbish, prompting a community clean-up effort.
6. The critic dismissed the movie as utter rubbish, claiming it lacked any originality.
7. After a long day of cleaning, I was shocked by the amount of rubbish that had accumulated in the garden.
8. She couldn't believe he would throw such valuable ideas away and label them as rubbish.
9. The council organized a community cleanup to address the rubbish littering the park.
10. Despite its reputation, the book turned out to be anything but rubbish; it was truly inspiring.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rubbish>