

RUBBLE

Meaning: Rubble refers to broken fragments of stone, brick, or other materials, typically resulting from the destruction of buildings or structures.

1. The earthquake reduced the once vibrant city to piles of rubble.
2. Archaeologists carefully sifted through the rubble to uncover ancient artifacts.
3. After the demolition, the site was left covered in heaps of rubble and debris.
4. She stumbled over a piece of rubble while trying to navigate the construction site.
5. The landscape was scarred by the rubble of abandoned buildings after the war.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rubble>