

RUBICON

Meaning: Rubicon: a point of no return, especially one that signifies a decisive commitment to a course of action.

1. Crossing the Rubicon marked a decisive point of no return in Julius Caesar's campaign.
2. In business, taking that initial investment often feels like crossing your own Rubicon.
3. She realized that confronting her fears was her personal Rubicon to overcome.
4. The team knew that the decision to launch the product would be their Rubicon, forever changing the company's future.
5. Once they decided to move forward with the merger, they had crossed the Rubicon, leaving no room for retreat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rubicon>