

RUBRIC

Meaning: A rubric is a set of criteria or guidelines used to assess and evaluate the quality of work or performance in an educational context.

1. The teacher provided a detailed rubric to help students understand the grading criteria for their projects.
2. Each category of the rubric outlined specific expectations for the assignment's content and presentation.
3. Using a clear rubric can significantly improve the consistency and fairness of evaluations.
4. Students often appreciate when a rubric accompanies an assignment, as it clarifies what is required for success.
5. The university adopted a new rubric that emphasizes critical thinking and creativity in student assessments.
6. In order to ensure fairness, the committee established a rubric that outlined the expectations for each applicant.
7. The rubric for the writing assignment specified that clarity, creativity, and grammar would be assessed.
8. During the workshop, participants received a rubric that described how their presentations would be evaluated.
9. Using a clear rubric allows for more objective feedback and helps students improve their skills.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rubric>