

RUCTATION

Meaning: Ructation is the act of making a loud noise or sound, often associated with a sudden or involuntary release of air from the stomach, similar to a burp.

1. The sudden ructation from the depths of the ocean startled the researchers aboard the vessel.
2. After a rich meal, he experienced an involuntary ructation that echoed through the quiet restaurant.
3. Her face turned a shade of crimson when a loud ructation erupted during the meeting.
4. The ructation proved to be a humorous moment, breaking the tension in the room.
5. While hiking, they heard a strange ructation coming from the dense underbrush, piquing their curiosity.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ructation>