

RUDDERHEAD

Meaning: Rudderhead: the part of a ship's steering mechanism that connects the rudder to the steering gear, allowing for directional control.

1. The captain adjusted the rudderhead to improve the ship's maneuverability.
2. After inspecting the rudderhead, the crew realized it needed urgent repairs.
3. A well-maintained rudderhead is essential for steering precision in rough waters.
4. The engineer explained how the rudderhead connects to the steering mechanism.
5. Strong currents tested the integrity of the rudderhead during the stormy voyage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rudderhead>