

RUDDERLESS

Meaning: RUDDERLESS: lacking direction or guidance, especially in leadership or purpose.

1. After the sudden loss of their leader, the team felt rudderless and unsure of their direction.
2. The company's strategy was rudderless, lacking clear goals or a vision for the future.
3. Without a mentor, she felt rudderless in her career, drifting without purpose.
4. The film's protagonist embodied a rudderless existence, searching for meaning in a chaotic world.
5. In times of crisis, many people can feel rudderless, struggling to find their way through uncertainty.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rudderless>