

RUDDINESS

Meaning: RUDDINESS: the quality of being red or having a reddish color, often associated with health, warmth, or vibrancy.

1. The ruddiness of her cheeks hinted at her recent embarrassment.
2. As autumn approached, the ruddiness of the leaves painted the landscape in vibrant hues.
3. His face took on a ruddiness after spending hours in the sun without protection.
4. The painter captured the ruddiness of the apples in such detail that they seemed almost real.
5. She admired the ruddiness in the sunset, which bathed the sky in shades of pink and orange.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ruddiness>