

RUFF

Meaning: Ruff: a thick, often frilled or pleated collar or neckpiece, typically worn for warmth or as a decorative feature, or a scruffy appearance resembling that of a dog.

1. The dog had a ruff appearance with its scruffy fur and playful demeanor.
2. She adjusted the ruff of her coat to keep the chill from her neck.
3. The actor wore a ruff around his neck to add authenticity to his historical character.
4. He playfully ruffed his friend's hair, causing them both to burst into laughter.
5. The collar of the dress featured an elegant ruff that added a touch of sophistication.
6. The dog proudly displayed its ruff as it bounded across the field.
7. She wore a beautiful dress adorned with a ruff that framed her face elegantly.
8. The musician's elaborate ruff added a touch of flair to his already striking attire.
9. During the Renaissance, a ruff was a common accessory among the wealthy elite.
10. The cat's fur fluffed up into a ruff when it encountered the unfamiliar dog.
11. The dog shook its ruff as it emerged from the water, sending droplets flying everywhere.
12. He wore a striking collar with a ruff that made him look regal at the dog show.
13. The ruff of the owl's feathers fluffed up as it prepared to take flight under the moonlight.
14. She admired the intricate lace ruff that adorned the neckline of the historical dress.
15. The actor's costume featured a large ruff that was both dramatic and eye-catching on stage.
16. The dog shook its fur, sending a ruff of energy into the air.
17. She wore a stunning dress with a ruff that framed her neck beautifully.
18. The old man laughed, his ruff of white hair contrasting with his dark jacket.
19. As the wind picked up, the branches created a ruff that rustled through the trees.
20. He let out a ruff, imitating the sound of a dog to make the children giggle.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ruff>