

RUFOUS

Meaning: Rufous refers to a reddish-brown color, often used to describe the plumage of certain birds or the hues of leaves.

1. The rufous hummingbird flitted around the garden, its vibrant plumage shimmering in the sunlight.
2. As autumn approached, the leaves turned a beautiful rufous color, painting the landscape in warm tones.
3. The artist chose a rufous palette for her sunset painting, capturing the essence of the fading day.
4. In the dense forest, a rufous fox emerged from the underbrush, blending seamlessly with the autumn foliage.
5. The rufous-crowned sparrow is known for its distinctive markings and melodic song in the early morning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rufous>