

RUG-GOWNED

Meaning: Rug-gowned: dressed in a warm, often oversized garment resembling a rug, typically associated with comfort and coziness.

1. She strolled through the art gallery, her rug-gowned figure drawing the attention of many admirers.
2. The children giggled as their grandmother, rug-gowned and cozy, joined them for storytime by the fire.
3. In the chilly evening air, he wrapped himself in a rug-gowned shawl, savoring the warmth it provided.
4. Her rug-gowned silhouette was a striking contrast to the crisp, white snow outside the window.
5. At the holiday gathering, she felt both comfortable and elegant in her oversized, rug-gowned attire.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rug-gowned>