

RUIN

Meaning: Ruin (verb): to spoil or destroy something completely, often causing it to be unusable or ineffective.

1. The storm threatened to ruin our plans for the outdoor wedding.
2. His careless mistakes could ruin years of hard work and dedication.
3. The ancient ruins of the castle stood as a testament to its glorious past.
4. She feared that the scandal would ruin her reputation in the community.
5. Time and neglect can easily ruin even the most beautiful landscapes.
6. The heavy rain threatened to ruin our outdoor picnic plans.
7. Years of neglect had begun to ruin the once beautiful park.
8. She was afraid that a single mistake could ruin her chances of getting the job.
9. The ancient ruins of the city tell a story of its glorious past.
10. His constant interruptions would ruin the flow of the conversation.
11. The heavy rain threatened to ruin the outdoor wedding planned for Saturday.
12. Years of neglect had begun to ruin the once-beautiful historic building.
13. Her careless remarks could easily ruin their friendship if she wasn't careful.
14. The unexpected news was enough to ruin his entire day.
15. He was determined not to let fear ruin his chances of success.