

RUINABLE

Meaning: Ruinable: capable of being destroyed, damaged, or deteriorated over time or through neglect.

1. The ancient ruins stood as a testament to a once-great civilization, yet they remained ruinable by time and nature.
2. Despite the careful planning, the project was still considered ruinable if not executed with precision.
3. Her dreams felt ruinable under the weight of societal expectations and pressures.
4. The delicate artwork was beautiful but also ruinable, requiring constant protection from the elements.
5. In a world of constant change, even the strongest relationships can seem ruinable without effort and communication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ruinable>