

RUINER

Meaning: RUINER: a person or thing that causes the destruction or downfall of something, often leading to disappointment or failure.

1. The unexpected rainstorm was a real ruiner for our outdoor wedding plans.
2. His careless comments turned out to be the ruiner of what could have been a lovely evening.
3. In the end, her bitterness became the ruiner of their once-strong friendship.
4. The broken promises were a ruiner for the trust that had taken years to build.
5. A single bad review can sometimes act as a ruiner for a small business's reputation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ruiner>