

RULING

Meaning: RULING (noun): An official decision or judgment made by a court or authoritative body regarding a legal matter or issue.

1. The court's ruling on the case set a new legal precedent.
2. After much debate, the committee reached a unanimous ruling on the proposal.
3. Her ruling as a judge was met with both praise and criticism from the public.
4. The organization's ruling on the matter was final and could not be contested.
5. He was disappointed by the ruling, believing it to be unjust and biased.
6. The court's ruling set a significant precedent for future cases.
7. After much deliberation, the panel reached a unanimous ruling on the matter.
8. Her ruling on the dispute was met with mixed reactions from the community.
9. The judge's ruling was based on a thorough review of the evidence presented.
10. Many experts believe that the recent ruling will reshape the legal landscape in the country.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ruling>