

RUMBLE

Meaning: RUMBLE: a deep, heavy, continuous sound, often associated with thunder or vibrations from large objects.

1. The distant rumble of thunder signaled the approaching storm.
2. As the train approached the station, the ground began to rumble beneath our feet.
3. The crowd erupted into cheers as the engine started to rumble to life.
4. We could hear the low rumble of the waves crashing against the shore at night.
5. His stomach began to rumble, reminding him it was time for dinner.
6. The distant rumble of thunder signaled an approaching storm.
7. As the train approached, you could hear the rumble of its wheels on the tracks.
8. The crowd erupted in cheers, creating a rumble that echoed through the stadium.
9. He felt a rumble in his stomach, reminding him it was time for lunch.
10. The earthquake began with a low rumble that shook the ground beneath their feet.
11. The thunder began to rumble ominously in the distance, signaling an approaching storm.
12. As the train approached, its wheels created a deep rumble that echoed through the station.
13. After a long day of hiking, we could hear the rumble of our stomachs, reminding us it was time to eat.
14. The crowd erupted in a low rumble of excitement as the band took the stage.
15. He felt a rumble of discontent among the employees after the announcement of the layoffs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumble>