

RUMBLING

Meaning: RUMBLING: a continuous deep, resonant sound or noise, often associated with thunder or internal bodily sensations.

1. The rumbling of thunder echoed through the valley as the storm approached.
2. She felt a rumbling in her stomach, signaling that it was time for lunch.
3. As the train sped by, there was a loud rumbling that rattled the windows.
4. The distant rumbling of the approaching avalanche sent everyone into a panic.
5. His voice had a deep, rumbling quality that commanded attention in the crowded room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumbling>