

RUMBLINGLY

Meaning: RUMBLINGLY: adverb describing a deep, resonant sound or movement that is continuous and often associated with vibrations.

1. The thunder rolled rumblingly across the sky, signaling an approaching storm.
2. As the train approached the station, it moved rumblingly over the tracks, shaking the ground beneath.
3. The old wooden floor creaked rumblingly underfoot, adding to the eerie atmosphere of the abandoned house.
4. The bear awoke from hibernation, its massive body shifting rumblingly in the den as it shook off the sleep.
5. With a rumblingly low growl, the lion asserted its dominance over the other animals in the pride.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumblingly>