

RUMBOWLINE

Meaning: RUMBOWLINE: A type of rope or line used in sailing, typically for securing sails or rigging on a vessel.

1. The rumbowline was intricately woven into the fabric of the traditional sailing vessel.
2. During the storm, the crew struggled to secure the rumbowline to prevent any damage to the sails.
3. As part of the rigging, the rumbowline played a crucial role in maintaining the ship's stability.
4. He marveled at the craftsmanship of the rumbowline, appreciating how it connected different parts of the ship.
5. The rumbowline was essential for the sailor's maneuvers, allowing for swift adjustments in the wind.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumbowline>