

RUMINANTLY

Meaning: RUMINANTLY: In a manner that involves deep or contemplative thought, often associated with slow and deliberate reflection or the act of chewing cud.

1. The cows grazed ruminantly, their contented chewing echoing in the quiet pasture.
2. As she sat by the window, she reflected ruminantly on the events of the past year.
3. The sheep moved ruminantly across the hillside, pausing frequently to nibble on the grass.
4. He spoke ruminantly about his travels, savoring each memory like a fine wine.
5. In the stillness of the evening, the deer rested ruminantly beneath the old oak tree.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ruminantly>