

RUMOR

Meaning: A rumor is an unverified piece of information or speculation that is circulated among people.

1. The rumor about the company's merger spread quickly through the office.
2. She couldn't believe the rumor that her favorite band was breaking up.
3. Despite the persistent rumor, he remained focused on his work and ignored the distractions.
4. The teacher addressed the rumor about the upcoming surprise quiz before it caused any more anxiety among the students.
5. Local authorities are investigating the rumor of a new development project in the neighborhood.
6. The rumor about the company's merger spread quickly among the employees.
7. Despite the persistent rumor, the celebrity maintained her silence on the matter.
8. He was careful not to spread the rumor further, knowing it could hurt someone.
9. A rumor can often take on a life of its own, distorting the truth in the process.
10. She dismissed the rumor as unfounded gossip from unreliable sources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumor>