

RUMORER

Meaning: RUMORER: a person who spreads unverified information or gossip, often leading to speculation and intrigue within a community.

1. The rumor spread tales of scandal that captivated the entire town.
2. In a close-knit community, a skilled rumor can create chaos with just a few whispered words.
3. Despite her reputation as a rumor, she insisted she only shared what she believed to be true.
4. The rumor was often shunned, yet their stories were too enticing for people to ignore.
5. Everyone knew the rumor had a flair for drama, turning mundane events into sensational news.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumor>