

RUMP-FED

Meaning: RUMP-FED: (adjective) referring to livestock that are fed primarily from the rear, often indicating a diet of high-quality pasture that enhances growth or productivity.

1. The farmer noticed that the cattle, which were rump-fed on rich pasture, produced higher quality milk.
2. After several months of being rump-fed, the pigs grew unusually large and healthy.
3. The chef preferred using rump-fed beef for its tenderness and rich flavor in his signature dishes.
4. In the competition, the rump-fed lamb stood out for its marbled texture and juiciness.
5. Many chefs argue that animals that are rump-fed tend to have a better overall quality of meat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rump-fed>