

RUMPER

Meaning: RUMPER: a one-piece garment, typically made of lightweight fabric, worn for casual or playful occasions, often featuring shorts or a skirt.

1. The children giggled as the clown wore a bright red rumper during the birthday party.
2. She decided to wear a comfortable rumper on her day off, enjoying the warm weather.
3. The fashion show featured a stunning collection of rumper designs that captivated the audience.
4. After a long day at work, he slipped into his rumper, ready to relax at home.
5. The vintage rumper she found at the thrift store became her favorite summer outfit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumper>