

RUMPLE

Meaning: To rumple means to make or become wrinkled or creased.

1. The old blanket was beginning to rumple after years of use.
2. As she tossed and turned in her sleep, the sheets started to rumple beneath her.
3. He tried to smooth out the rumpled shirt before heading to the meeting.
4. The wind would rumple the pages of her book if she left it open outside.
5. After sitting for too long, the cushions began to rumple and lose their shape.
6. The child would rumple the pages of her favorite storybook as she read it over and over.
7. After a long day, he liked to rumple the sheets on his bed before settling in for the night.
8. She watched the wind rumple the surface of the lake, creating ripples that danced in the sunlight.
9. As he stood up, his shirt began to rumple, giving him a slightly disheveled appearance.
10. The artist intentionally chose to rumple the canvas, adding texture and depth to his work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumple>