

RUMPLED

Meaning: Rumply means wrinkled or disheveled, often due to being disturbed or in a state of disorder.

1. Her hair was beautifully styled in the morning, but by afternoon, it had become rumbled and wild.
2. The bedspread was rumped, indicating that someone had hastily gotten up.
3. He wore a rumped suit that suggested he had been in a hurry to leave the house.
4. After a long day of travel, she looked tired and rumped, yet still managed a smile.
5. The papers lay rumped on the desk, evidence of a frantic search for information.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumped>