RUMPUS

Meaning: RUMPUS: a noisy commotion or uproar, often involving excitement and activity.

1. The children created a rumpus in the living room, laughing and shouting as they played.
2. After the announcement, a sudden rumpus erupted in the crowd, filled with cheers and applause.
3. Despite the late hour, the party continued with a lively rumpus that could be heard from down the street.
4. Their playful rumpus turned into a friendly pillow fight, filling the air with giggles and feathers.
5. The unexpected rumpus in the backyard startled the neighbors, who peeked over their fences in curiosity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rumpus