

RUPTURE

Meaning: RUPTURE: A sudden break or burst in a structure, such as a gas line or blood vessel, often leading to significant damage or health risks.

1. The sudden rupture of the gas line caused an explosion that shook the entire neighborhood.
2. Doctors were concerned that a rupture in the blood vessel could lead to severe complications.
3. Her emotional rupture after the breakup left her feeling lost and isolated.
4. The dam's rupture released a torrent of water that flooded the nearby town.
5. He had to take time off work due to a painful rupture in his abdominal muscles.
6. The sudden rupture of the dam caused widespread flooding in the valley.
7. After the surgery, the doctor warned that a rupture in the stitches could lead to complications.
8. Their friendship ended in a painful rupture following a serious disagreement.
9. Geologists monitored the area closely for any signs of a rupture in the fault line.
10. The athlete suffered a rupture in his Achilles tendon, sidelining him for months.
11. The sudden rupture of the gas line caused an evacuation of the nearby buildings.
12. After the traumatic accident, she experienced a rupture in her emotional well-being.
13. The doctor explained that a rupture in the blood vessel could lead to serious complications.
14. To prevent a rupture of the dam, engineers implemented a series of safety measures.
15. The rupture of the friendship occurred over a misunderstanding that neither was willing to address.
16. The sudden rupture of the dam caused widespread flooding in the nearby towns.
17. After the rupture of their relationship, both friends found it difficult to communicate.
18. She felt a deep sense of loss after the rupture of their once close-knit family.
19. During the experiment, the scientist noted the unexpected rupture in the chemical reaction.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rupture>