

RUSH

Meaning: RUSH: a sudden strong feeling or influx of energy or movement, often characterized by urgency or excitement.

1. She felt a rush of adrenaline as she stepped onto the stage.
2. In the morning, the city streets are often filled with a rush of commuters hurrying to work.
3. The rush of water over the rocks created a soothing sound in the peaceful forest.
4. He decided to bypass the rush hour traffic by taking the scenic route home.
5. During the sale, there was a rush of customers eager to grab the best deals.
6. She felt a rush of excitement as the concert began.
7. In the morning, the city streets were filled with a rush of commuters.
8. He had to rush through his homework to make it to the game on time.
9. The sudden rush of adrenaline helped her finish the race.
10. After hearing the news, a rush of relief washed over him.
11. I felt a rush of adrenaline as I sprinted towards the finish line.
12. During the holiday season, shoppers often rush to find the best deals.
13. She decided to rush through her homework to join her friends at the movies.
14. The sound of the waves created a calming rush that soothed my mind.
15. Despite the rush of excitement, I knew I had to remain focused on my goals.
16. She felt a rush of excitement as she stepped onto the stage.
17. The sudden rush of adrenaline helped him push through the obstacle.
18. They had to rush to finish the project before the deadline.
19. During the holiday season, the rush to shop often leaves people feeling stressed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rush>