

RUSHER

Meaning: RUSHER: a person, particularly in sports, who moves quickly and aggressively, often to evade opponents or achieve a goal.

1. The quarterback was known for being a skilled rusher who could evade defenders with ease.
2. In a last-minute rush, the students scrambled to complete their assignments before the deadline.
3. The rusher cut through the defense, leaving a trail of defenders in his wake.
4. During the Black Friday sales, every shopper became a frantic rusher, eager to grab the best deals.
5. Her passion for running made her a natural rusher in the competitive world of marathons.
6. The rusher darted past defenders, showcasing impressive speed and agility.
7. In the heat of the moment, the rusher managed to evade several tackles and score a touchdown.
8. Fans cheered as their favorite rusher broke through the defensive line for a long gain.
9. Coaches often emphasize the importance of vision for a successful rusher on the field.
10. With each game, the young rusher improved his technique and decision-making under pressure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rusher>