

RUSSETY

Meaning: Russety: having a reddish-brown color, often associated with autumn foliage or certain shades of hair.

1. The trees in autumn wore a russety cloak, transforming the landscape into a vibrant tapestry of colors.
2. Her hair shone with a russety hue, catching the light in shades of copper and gold.
3. He admired the russety tones of the soil, rich and fertile, promising a bountiful harvest.
4. The sunset painted the sky with russety streaks, casting a warm glow over the horizon.
5. As they walked through the forest, the russety leaves crunched under their feet, a satisfying sound in the crisp air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/russety>