

RUSSIFICATION

Meaning: RUSSIFICATION is the process of promoting Russian culture and language over local cultures, often resulting in the suppression of minority identities and traditions.

1. RUSSIFICATION policies in the late 19th century aimed to suppress local cultures in favor of a dominant Russian identity.
2. The process of RUSSIFICATION often led to the marginalization of minority languages and traditions.
3. Many historians argue that RUSSIFICATION played a significant role in the tensions between ethnic groups within the empire.
4. RUSSIFICATION efforts included the promotion of the Russian language in schools and government institutions.
5. Critics of RUSSIFICATION contend that it fostered resentment and resistance among the affected populations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/russification>